Luxurious Hotel Hershey

Embark on a five-day journey through the heart of the South, starting with two nights in historic Charleston. Stay at the elegant Francis Marion Hotel, a restored 1920s landmark with views of Marion Square. Explore Charleston's cobblestone streets on a guided tour, visiting the Battery's antebellum mansions, the Charleston City Market, and the Magnolia Plantation and Gardens. Enjoy a low-country dinner featuring local specialties.

Next, head to Beaufort, SC, a charming town known for its antebellum architecture and scenic waterfront. Stroll along Bay Street, explore historic homes, and visit the John Mark Verdier House.

Continue to Savannah for two nights in the heart of downtown, where you'll enjoy a guided city tour through picturesque squares and moss-draped oaks. Visit Tybee Island's beach and historic lighthouse, and spend free time exploring Savannah's River Street, with its unique shops and galleries. Return home with lasting memories of Southern charm and hospitality.
