Christmas in Savannah, Georgia: Day by Day

Day 1 – December 22: Your Christmas Adventure Begins

Your holiday adventure begins with convenient door-to-door pickup as you travel toward Savannah. Along the way, enjoy a planned stop before continuing to Georgia's beautiful Low Country. Arrive in Savannah and settle into your hotel, your home for the next four nights. Enjoy dinner and your first evening in this charming historic city as Savannah begins to glow with the spirit of Christmas.

Day 2 – December 23: Discover Savannah & the Low Country

Begin your Savannah experience with a guided tour of the historic district. Discover the city's beautiful architecture, historic squares, and fascinating stories while taking in landmarks such as Forsyth Park and the magnificent Cathedral of St. John the Baptist.

Continue your exploration beyond Savannah with a visit to the Pin Point Heritage Museum, located at the site of a former oyster and crab factory. Learn about the Gullah people and their unique culture, traditions, and contributions to the Low Country.

Enjoy a Southern-inspired lunch at the historic Olde Pink House, one of Savannah's beloved dining destinations. Continue to Tybee Island, where you can enjoy the coastal scenery and visit the historic lighthouse before returning to Savannah for dinner.

Day 3 – December 24: History, the River & Christmas Eve

Travel through the Low Country and visit the Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum, which honors the men and women of the Mighty Eighth Air Force and their crucial role during World War II. Enjoy lunch at Miss Sophie's in the museum's English Pub area.

Continue to Savannah and enjoy a relaxing Savannah River Cruise, taking in views of the historic waterfront from the water. As evening approaches, experience the city's beautiful holiday atmosphere before enjoying a festive Christmas Eve dinner.

Day 4 – December 25: Christmas Day in Savannah

Celebrate Christmas Day together with a festive Christmas party and holiday feast. Enjoy a relaxed day filled with good food, holiday cheer, and time to savor the company of fellow travelers.

Later, experience the magic of Savannah's Christmas lights as you embark on a special evening drive through some of the city's beautifully decorated neighborhoods and holiday displays.

Day 5 – December 26: Beaufort & Homeward Bound

After breakfast, travel to Beaufort, South Carolina, a picturesque Low Country town known for its well-preserved antebellum architecture, scenic waterfront, and grand homes shaded by ancient live oaks.

Explore Beaufort's historic Old Point neighborhood before continuing to St. Helena Island and Penn Center, one of the first schools established for formerly enslaved African Americans.

After lunch, begin your journey back to Western North Carolina. Your Globe Treks representative will return you safely to your doorstep, bringing your Christmas adventure to a close with memories of Savannah's historic streets, coastal scenery, festive celebrations, delicious food, and the stories of the Low Country.
