The Great Lakes & Georgian Bay: Day by Day

Day 1 - September 11, 2027- Arrive the day before your cruise

Pearl Seas Cruises takes care of every detail with a convenient pre-cruise package that includes a one-night stay at the centrally located Drury Hotel in downtown Milwaukee, close to popular attractions such as the Milwaukee Art Museum and Harley-Davidson Museum.

Begin embarkation day with breakfast followed by a guided exploration of Milwaukee. Discover the city's historic neighborhoods, architectural treasures, and cultural highlights while learning about the European immigrants who helped shape its rich heritage. A complimentary transfer to the ship is included for a seamless start to your cruise.

Day 2 - September 12, 2027 -Board the Pearl Mist - Milwaukee, WI

Begin your journey in the vibrant city of Milwaukee. There's more to this city than beer and baseball. In addition to being home to ten Fortune 1000 company headquarters, Milwaukee is also known for its historic architecture, markets, international seaport, and variety of museums, including the Milwaukee Art Museum just steps away from our dock.

Day 3 - September 13, 2027 -Muskegon / Holland, MI

From historic ships and lighthouses to the restored mansions built by Muskegon's most famous lumber barons, delight in the history and scenery of this quaint Michigan town. Referred to as "The Riviera of the Midwest," Muskegon has grown from a fur trading and lumbering town to a vibrant tourist destination. Explore the delightful town of Holland where hundreds of Dutch immigrants live and immerse yourself in its genuine Dutch culture.

Day 4 - September 14, 2027 - Mackinac Island, MI

Mackinac Island is a living Victorian town where personal motorized vehicles are prohibited – all those visiting or living on the island travel by horse or horse-drawn carriage, bicycle, or on foot. While Mackinac Island is known for its opulent Victorian homes and hotels, it has a long Native American history. Anishinabe-Ojibwe tradition holds that the island was a sacred place populated by the first people and was home to the Great Spirit Gitchie Manitou.

Day 5 - September 15, 2027 - Sault Ste. Marie, ON

Located at the mouth of St. Marys River, Sault Ste. Marie was originally established by Jesuit missionaries in the 17th century. St. Marys River connects Lake Superior to Lake Huron and has provided trade access between the United States and Canada for hundreds of years. The blend of the native Ojibwa with the French and English settlers resulted in the rich and diverse culture of this incredible destination.

Day 6 - September 16, 2027 - Little Current, ON

Located along the north shore of Manitoulin Island, Little Current is considered the gateway to the World's Largest Freshwater Island. Home to the native Ojibwe, this charming town is known for its swing bridge, a one-lane bridge and the only vehicular access to Manitoulin Island except for a daily passenger-vehicle ferry that runs from late spring to October.

Day 7 - September 17, 2027 -Parry Sound, ON

Located on the eastern shore of Georgian Bay in Lake Huron, Parry Sound is a picturesque port town with charming cottages and spectacular views. As you cruise the Georgian Bay, enjoy its serene beauty from the ships' sun deck where you can admire views of Flowerpot Rocks, windswept pines, rugged coast, and clear blue waters.

Day 8 - September 18, 2027 - Midland, ON

Midland is the main town and economic center of the area located at the southern end of Georgian Bay's Thirty Thousand Islands. Learn about the history of this fascinating city with a visit to Sainte-Marie among the Hurons, a living museum depicting 17th-century missionary life. Stroll along the Midland Harbor, a picturesque destination featuring a large statue of the trumpeter swan, considered the symbol of Midland. For bird lovers, the Wye Marsh Wildlife Centre is a habitat for Trumpeter Swans, Black Terns, and Least Bitterns.

Day 9: September 19, 2027 - Toronto, ON

End your amazing journey in Toronto, established as a Native American settlement and French fur trading post. Within its impressive skyline, there are several cultural hotspots including art galleries, museums, and performance centers. Shoppers will delight in Queen Street West, where chic boutiques replaced this old warehouse area and Kensington Street, where retro style abounds.
