Join us for an unforgettable day trip to Abingdon, Virginia, for a performance of Kings Mountain at the legendary Barter Theatre! This isn't your average history lesson; it's a theatrical tour-de-force that brings the "battle that turned the tide" to life. Follow the brave Overmountain Men, the women who held the home front, and the soldiers of the Crown in a gripping tale of grit and independence commissioned by VA250. From the clash of kings to the deep questions of liberty, this is a powerful, high-energy experience you won't want to miss. Grab your seat—history is calling!
