Lewis & Clark by Land & Sea

Embark on a 17-day journey along the Lewis and Clark route, where history and landscapes come to life. Start in St. Louis, visiting the Gateway Arch, Camp Dubois, and the Lewis and Clark Boathouse. Travel to Kansas City, then continue to Nebraska City and Omaha to explore key sites. Next, visit Sioux City's Sergeant Floyd Museum, then head to Bismarck, ND, to see the North Dakota Heritage Center and Fort Mandan. Explore the Knife River Indian Villages, stay at the Rough Riders Hotel in Medora, and enjoy a cookout and musical performance. Discover Teddy Roosevelt National Park before heading to Billings with a stop at Pompeys Pillar.

In Great Falls, visit the Interpretive Center, then cross Lolo Pass to Lewiston for a jet boat tour of Hells Canyon. Board the American Song for an eight-day cruise along the Columbia River, visiting Pendleton, The Dalles, Hood River, and Astoria. Finish in Portland with unforgettable memories of the expedition.
