

Southern Appalachian Wine Trail

September 27 - 30, 2026

$2,595 /double • $2,995 /single

Sip your way through the rich wine country of Virginia and North Carolina on a four-day getaway filled with bold reds, crisp whites, and Southern charm. Spend two nights at the storied Mountain Lake Lodge (made famous by Dirty Dancing) surrounded by the Blue Ridge Mountains and just minutes from tastings at Beliveau Farm Winery and the French-inspired Château Morrisette. Enjoy leisurely afternoons sampling estate vintages and savoring wine-paired meals, including a chef-prepared dinner at Mountain Lake and a vineyard lunch at Villa Appalaccia.

Continue south to North Carolina's Yadkin Valley for tastings at Shelton Vineyards and Raffaldini Vineyards, known for its Tuscan-style wines and panoramic views. Your final night is at the welcoming Hampton Inn & Suites at Shelton Vineyards, where you'll enjoy a relaxed evening and a memorable food-and-wine pairing dinner on the estate. This delightful tour blends mountain beauty, warm hospitality, and distinctive regional wines into one deliciously relaxed experience.
