Chattanooga: Day by Day

Day 1: Monday, May 10

Your adventure begins right at your doorstep, with a Globe Treks representative welcoming you aboard. Settle in as we get acquainted with fellow travelers while winding through the breathtaking Nantahala River Gorge, where towering cliffs, lush forests, and the sparkling river create a spectacular morning backdrop.

Arrive in Chattanooga in time for lunch, followed by an unforgettable visit to the renowned Tennessee Aquarium. Explore two immersive buildings showcasing the wonders of freshwater and saltwater life—from river otters, alligators, and enormous catfish along the River Journey to sharks, playful penguins, and colorful coral reefs on the Ocean Journey. After an exciting day of exploration, check into our hotel, where you'll have the next three nights to relax, unwind, and enjoy all that Chattanooga has to offer.

Day 2: Tuesday, May 11

Immerse yourself in Chattanooga's captivating blend of history, culture, and natural beauty on a guided city tour. Explore the revitalized riverfront and historic districts while discovering fascinating stories of the city's Civil War heritage and industrial past. Along the way, enjoy public art, scenic views, and the unique character that makes Chattanooga so special. After lunch, enjoy free time to explore downtown at your own pace. Browse charming shops, cafés, and galleries, or simply relax and enjoy the hotel's hospitality. As evening arrives, savor dinner before setting out on a relaxing cruise along the Tennessee River. Glide beneath the twilight sky as Chattanooga's skyline comes alive, creating a peaceful and memorable end to the day.

Day 3: Wednesday, May 12

All aboard for a day filled with history, nostalgia, and culture! Step back in time at the Tennessee Valley Railroad Museum, where beautifully restored locomotives, vintage railcars, and fascinating exhibits celebrate the golden age of rail travel. Then climb aboard a heritage train for a memorable journey to Missionary Ridge, winding through scenic landscapes and historic tunnels as the romance of rail travel comes to life.

After lunch, discover the Hunter Museum of American Art, dramatically perched above the Tennessee River. Explore its remarkable collection spanning centuries of American creativity, from traditional paintings to modern sculptures, all showcased within a striking blend of architectural styles.

As evening falls, gather for an exceptional dinner at one of Chattanooga's celebrated restaurants, reflecting on the day's adventures while enjoying the city's vibrant culinary scene.

Day 4: Thursday, May 13

Our final morning begins with a visit to Chattanooga's iconic Walnut Street Pedestrian Bridge. Once a vital river crossing, this beautifully restored landmark now offers breathtaking views of the Tennessee River and connects downtown with the lively North Shore. Take a leisurely stroll, capture a few final photos, and savor one last glimpse of Chattanooga's scenic beauty.

As we begin our journey home, enjoy a delicious lunch along the way while reminiscing about the adventures, new friendships, and special moments shared throughout our trip. We'll arrive back in Western North Carolina in the early evening, bringing home wonderful memories of Chattanooga's stunning landscapes, fascinating history, Southern hospitality, and unforgettable charm.
